What do you like doing in your spare time? I like reading and ice-skating. I like reading too.
Let's go to the central library together at the weekend. Good idea! Shall we play table tennis this weekend as well? I don't like playing table tennis. Ok. Let's go jogging in the park. That sounds more interesting and fun. Can we go swimming and roller-skating afterwards? Sure. Let's do it. However, don't forget your swimming shorts and jogging pants as we will be a long way from home!
